LBJ's Voting Bill Communist Inspired

Directed particularly to end Southern White rule and form a "Black Republic"

For all intents and purposes, the government of these United States of America is now in the hands of the high command of Communist and liberal agitators whose professionally organized mobs have been set loose upon the American People and their duly elected local, county, state and national representatives. The U. S. Constitution is in almost total de facto abeyance as these self-admitted revolutionaries, aided and abetted by agents and collaborators who have infiltrated every level of legislative, judicial and executive authority, strive for its final overthrow at the point of the Federal bayonets.

In December, 1956, the AMERICAN FLAG COMMITTEE published the first public report on the Communist Party's "Lincoln Project," which blueprinted in specific detail the provisions of the currently pending "voting rights" bill and the tactics pursued at Selma, Alabama, to prompt its introduction into Congress. The Lincoln Project, calling for mass demonstrations, marches and provocations to public disorder aimed at imposing Federal control over local and state elections during the hundredth anniversary of the death of Abraham Lincoln, was hailed by Radio Moscow in its shortwave English transmission to North America on the evening of February 12, 1957, and was incorporated into the indoctrination and training courses conducted at the Communist Highlander Folk School at Monteagle, Tennessee, during the summer of the same year. It was during one of these sessions, on Labor Day, 1957, that Lincoln Project leader Martin Luther King was photographed as he received classroom instruction in the company of Abner W. Berry, key member of the all-powerful Central Committee of the Communist Party, U.S.A.

In this report on the Lincoln Project, two paragraphs should suffice to underscore the precision of the long-range planning which culminated in Red success at Selma and produced a bill so close to the specifications demanded by the plotters nearly a decade before its introduction into Congress this year.

"To implement the (Lincoln) Project, the Communist Party's Central Committee will begin dispatching specially trained agents to eleven southern states next month (January, 1957) to work with local Party leaders in surveying for twenty counties, any one of which might be ideally suited to be selected as the target for provoking the preplanned initial disorder early in 1965. This survey will continue through 1957, the Central Committee making the choice of twenty counties after analyzing the reports of its agents early in 1958. Thereafter, the Party will intensify recruitment and organizational operations in the counties so designated, with the final selection of a single target location being made on the basis of the most favorable conditions prevailing in 1965."

Blueprint for Chaos

"The legislation which the (Communist) Party will seek to extort from Congress in 1965 has already been prepared by its legal staff. It provides for the elimination of all educational requirements, including minimum literacy tests, as qualifications for voting in federal, state and local elections; voids residence requirements with respect to counties, municipalities and other political subdivisions within a state; and establishes a system of direct Federal supervision and control of the entire local, county, state and federal elective process."

In the eight years which have passed since the Communist Party initiated its plans for "memorializing" Abraham Lincoln by triggering the civil strife and bayonet rule which followed his assassination, three Administrations (Eisenhower, Kennedy and Johnson) have lived with the knowledge of what was to come. President Johnson is especially culpable in this respect, since he has ignored the urgent and repeated reports of FBI Director, J. Edgar Hoover, supplying him with precise information on Lincoln Project operations over the past twelve months!

The truth, of course, is that the leaderships of both the Democratic and Republican Parties are striving to counter the rising conservative tide by capturing the mass voting support of at least several millions of illiterate, semi-literate and "activist" Negroes throughout the South, while attracting the support of the extreme liberals of all ethnic backgrounds elsewhere. As in the case of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, the Democratic high command has no chance of forcing enactment of the current "voting rights" bill without topside GOP collaboration. Again, as was the case last year, Senator Everett Dirksen has joined the extreme Republican liberals to assure that the bill will pass.

To note how closely the "voting rights" bill follows the specifications of the model legislation prepared by the Communist Party in connection with its Lincoln Project back in 1956, one has only to examine the language of H.R. 6400 and S. 1564, which are the numbers of the Administration's measure in the U. S. House of Representatives and the Senate.

First of all, the bill is clearly aimed at those southern states which Johnson lost to Goldwater last year, since the criteria for determining applicability of its provisions are specifically related to a fixed date, November 1, 1964. Moreover, the bill establishes no provisions for the uniform and equal enforcement of its punitive measures wherever violations may occur. Instead, Section 3(a) gives the U. S. Attorney General supreme and exclusive power to "determine" the particular states, counties, cities, townships and lesser political subdivisions (school districts, for example) against which he wishes to take action. Indeed, Section 3(a) is so worded as to permit him to ignore the denial of registration or voting rights in any state or subdivision whose officials are friendly to, or otherwise collaborating with, the Johnson Administration in Washington!

The bill purports to enforce the 15th Amendment to the U. S. Constitution by giving the U. S. Attorney General authority to cause Federal "examiners" to be appointed (in limitless number) by the U. S. Civil Service Commission, to be dispatched
